RUSSIA SURVIVAL GUIDE

Alexander Rodionov and Maya Krivchenia

CONCEPT & BACKGROUND

Russian Folklore includes many of the regional folkloric ensembles and dance companies popular in the Russian Federation. Often these folkloric ensembles specialize in collecting and maintaining the folk music traditions of the area of their origins which they service. They perform in stylized stage costumes based on the authentic costume designs used in the village but modified for stage use.

Russian Dancing Cossacks

Cossack Dance Show is performance of traditional Cossack Russian folk dance routine consisting of acrobatic tumbles, jumps, breathtaking spins and leaps and the infamous Cossack kicks!

Russian Singing Cossacks

Cossacks can not only dance but sing!

Balalaika Trio/Orchestra

Balalaika is stringed musical instrument of Russian origin. Usually concert program compares Russian traditional & folk melodies, also Western classical works are played. Will be ideal entertainment for welcome receptions in the Russian style, Russian dinners or lunches as background music.

Bread and Salt Ceremony

Bread and Salt Ceremony is one of the oldest Russian traditions. When important, respected or admired guests arrive, they were greeted by young women in traditional costumes with a loaf of bread placed on a rushnik (embroidered towel). A salt holder or a salt cellar is placed on top of the bread loaf or secured in a hole on the top of the loaf.

Gypsy show

A unique and colorful treat, spirited gypsy actors perform the traditional, hypnotizing dances with modern panache. Set to familiar Russian folk favorites, they twirl and bounce, before inviting everyone to join in on the fun. Traditionally in Russia the gypsies were invited to the restaurants or houses by rich merchants to animate the guests, to convey the positive emotions and create the atmosphere of a real festival!

Russian Babki

Babki from Karelia

Karelia is an ancient land of forests, lakes, small villages and epic songs. It is a region that encompasses both sides of the Finnish and Russian border and the ensemble's music is an exciting and interesting mix of Finnish, Russian and Karelian cultures. Four Old Russian Ladies and Harmonica player, wearing national folklore costumes of the North Eastern area of Karelia: bright colorful head kerchieves, skirts, made of wool, folded in different ways and often colorfully striped, embroidered shirts, sing a Capella Russian village and work songs.
